Dear Doctor:

Congratulations on completing your collection of all 18th century Georgia state and colonial paper money known to exist. You have been steady and enthusiastic about the mission. What are you going to do as an encore?

You will be pleased to know that Krause has agreed to publish a 5th edition of The Early Paper Money of America and so all of the suggestions you may have for improvement are welcomed by me, either Georgia or otherwise. Naturally the new auction prices helped make the book necessary. If you have full size colored images of your pieces many could be used for illustrations.

As to driving up to see anything here I will welcome that at a mutually convenient time if you tell me what you can about your purpose. The University does not have control of our collection as the Eric P. Newman Numismatic Education Society does. We also have all of Harley Freeman's details as to the content of all collections of colonial paper at the time he recorded his information.

All of a sudden loads of people have become excited about a field in which you and I have been studying for many years, but I have had the pleasure in working in so many American numismatic areas that I really feel lucky. I am only 94 so please use your skills to see to it that I retain all of my marbles.

My best to you. Eric

Radford Stearns

of the references with prices need to be redone.

Thanks for your support and encouragement over the years. Considering the activity at the Ford Sales it would seem that many

The other reason for my writing is to learn if your collection is available for study at the university library. Lenny Vaccaro (medal specialist) and I would like to drive up some time from Atlanta and would appreciate knowing who to contact if it is available.

My quest is completed. I have finally acquired the last note of 1755 to 1786 Georgia that I knew existed but didn't have - the 1777NRD from Ford X held Thursday in Atlanta. It's been a 33 year quest. Naturally I do not have any of the private merchants items or a SOLA note but am very pleased with the accomplishment. I do plan to exhibit it in Atlanta for next years mid year convention.

TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a summary of certain aspects of the taxation of the Partnership which should be considered by a potential purchaser of a Limited Partnership Interest. However, particularly in view of the complexities of the income tax laws applicable to partnerships (especially multi-tier partnerships) and securities transactions, and since no attempt is made herein to summarize the tax treatment of securities transactions, a person considering investing in the Partnership should consult his tax advisor in order fully to understand the federal, local and foreign income tax consequences of such investment in his particular situation. No representation is made as to the tax consequences of the operation of the Partnership.

Federal Income Tax Considerations

The following is a summary of certain aspects of the taxation of the Partnership and its Partners which should be considered by a potential purchaser of a Limited Partnership Interest. It is based on the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"), regulations promulgated under the Code ("Treasury Regulations"), court decisions and published rulings of the Internal Revenue Service as in effect on the date of this Memorandum. The Partnership will not request any rulings from the Internal Revenue Service. A court might reach a contrary conclusion with respect to the issues addressed if the matter were contested. In addition, future legislative or administrative changes or court decisions may significantly change the conclusions expressed herein, and any such changes or decisions may have a retroactive effect with respect to the transaction contemplated herein.

Characterization of the Partnership. The Partnership has received an opinion from its counsel, Lowenstein, Sandler, Brochin, Kohl, Fisher and Boylan, P.C. that it will be characterized as a partnership for federal income tax purposes. However, this opinion will not be binding upon the Internal Revenue Service or the courts and the Partnership has not sought, and will not seek, a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service with respect to its status as a partnership for federal income tax purposes. If it were determined that the Partnership should be classified as an association taxable as a corporation: the taxable income of the Partnership would be subject to corporate income tax when recognized by the Partnership; distributions of such income, other than in redemption of a Limited Partnership Interest, would be treated as dividend income when received by the Partners

Eric, I will be speaking on Templeton Reid at the Central State Convention in May and would like to make arrangements at the Museum to be able to examine your Georgia Colonials there. Can you tell me who to contact or introduce me to the curator? I will be there May 8th.

Thanks,

Radford Stearns

As to partial or whole sheets I want to know what you have and I can send you photocopies of ours if you need that.

You must be very proud of your Georgia collection and I congratulate you again on the achievement.

My best to you for 2007.

Dear Radford:

It was delightful to hear from you and to learn of your political ambitions for the ANA. You are a brave man. My friend Joel Orosz really wrote an amazing letter to the Coin World editor. As to your visit to St. Louis for the Central States Convention I will be glad to see you but a few other visitors also want to visit and I have to find a way to handle the situation. I plan to be at the museum most of the time it is open. I could bring some Georgia items for inspection as they are not kept at the site except for a couple which may be on display. We have to use banks for normal storage purposes.

I would like to know first if you have any Georgia improvements for the fifth edition of Early Paper Money of America as I must have all changes in during early January 2007. The valuations are being done by Stuart Levine and his team. I want to know particularly if you have any border varieties which I am not familiar with. I do not know if you collect border varieties and would like to know. Perhaps you might send me a list of what Georgia items you have in your collection with serial numbers. That would be most interesting.

As to partial or whole sheets I want to know what you have and I can send you photocopies of ours if you need that.

You must be very proud of your Georgia collection and I congratulate you again on the achievement.

My best to you for 2007.

Eric,
Joel's letter was excellent; I fully agree with him!

I have been encouraged to run by Ken Bressett, Cliff Mishler, Chet Krause, Bill Fivaz, Julian Leidman Ed Rochette, David Ganz, Anthony Swiack, Joe Boling, Dana Linnett, Jon Kern, David Hendin, Bob Julian and a host of others. The organization needs to be taken back by the members.

On May 8th I would like to view the pre-1776 Georgia items in your collection. Previously you generously shared the serial numbers of the 1776 and 1777 notes. If time permits I would like to see the 1776 and later notes also, especially 1782 and 1786.

I do not collect be border varieties so am unable to provide any additional information in that regard.

I will be talking on Georgia Colonial Paper Money at the CSNS convention - considering your collection that is bringing coal to Newcastle!

A far as sheets are concerned I have both full 1778 sheets and fragments of the 1776 sterling issue fractional issues.

I recently acquired Ford's 1776 $1 Blue Green number 41. That means you, American Antiquarian and both of my specimens are #41!!!!

I have seen a double sheet of 16 notes of the 9/10/1777 issue in Governor's Telfair's personal papers at the Georgia Historical society in Savannah.

I have yet to see the 1782 issue fully signed. I own the note plated in EPMA (via Fritz Weber) and the signatures on it are bogus. According to Walter (in 1977 at Atlanta), there never was a Simmi Ross and that is not Walton's signature. Also the name on the back is Thos. Lynch, Jr, So. Car. Breen told me he had read the South Carolina census reports and there was no Thos. Lynch, Jr living there.

I will drive or fly up on May 7 and hope to see you or the curator at the museum on May 8th.

Thanks for your reply,

Radford

Eric,

I just wanted to touch base with you again as I will be coming up for the CSNS in May. We will be driving from Atlanta to St Louis on Monday May 7th and would greatly appreciate being able to see your pre-1776 Georgia notes at the Library on Tuesday May 8th if possible.

Thanks very much,

Eric,
My schedule is very flexible and can accommodate your schedule.

Just let me know a time and place and I will be there. I can set up my exhibits any time Wednesday or Thursday and am speaking on Templeton Reid Thursday at 4 PM.

I suspect your definition of "modest holdings" is a bit different from other collectors or students concept of modest! I am very grateful and excited that you are being so graciously generous to so many interested people at this time.

Thank you again for making this available for me,

Radford

Eric,

Just wanted to send a quick note of appreciation for your giving me the opportunity to catalogue your pre-1776 Georgia notes. That made the entire trip worthwhile. It was great to see that you and your wife are doing so well! I have the same form of leukemia that took Doug Ball but have an excellent prognosis at this time.

We are off Wednesday to Grand Cayman and a week of diving.

Thank you so much again,

Radford Stearns
